Lifestyle Landscapes Supports Homeless and At-Risk Youth

(Seattle, Washington) October 18, 2005– Lifestyle Landscapes, a Seattle-based landscaping design/build firm, will be a title sponsor of Seattle Youth Garden Works' 10th Anniversary Annual Gala & Auction Event on November 12th, 2005.

Seattle Youth Garden Works (SYGW) empowers homeless and under-served youth through garden-based education and employment. SYGW provides an opportunity for over 60 young adults a year to experience gainful employment, learn about gardening and develop business skills by selling their produce at area farmers markets. The program includes two sites: Marra Farm in South Seattle at the Center for Urban Horticulture in the U-District.

Lifestyle Landscapes will sponsor Seattle Youth Garden Work's 10th Anniversary Gala & Auction Event on November 12th at Seattle's Scottish Rite Center. Expected to draw over 250 attendees, all proceeds from the event will go directly to assisting under-served youth. In addition to sponsorship, Lifestyle Landscapes will also donate a professionally designed and installed container garden, retailing over $800.00.

“We are very excited to welcome Lifestyle Landscapes to the Seattle Youth Garden Works community,” states Megan Davis, Development Manager of Seattle Youth Garden Works. “The Auction and Gala Event is our main fundraising event and is critical to the success of our program.”

“We have been searching for a way to give back to the community and after volunteering at Marra Farm last year and learning more about Seattle Youth Garden Works, we felt it was a great fit for us,” states Arlene Wing, President of Lifestyle Landscapes, Inc. “We are thrilled to have the opportunity to help homeless young adults through this meaningful program.”
